

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel
Monday - 10 February 1964

Page 3

9. (Internal Use Only - JGO) In meeting with Mr. John Martiny, Associate Counsel, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee, learned that the dual compensation bill could well come up on the floor of the House on Monday, 17 February, although final scheduling has not yet actually been made. It is hoped that the pay bill will come before Rules Committee at its next full session, the week of the 17th, but Chairman Judge Smith has not committed himself as to the date for hearing.

10. (Internal Use Only - JGO) In meeting with Mr. Russell Blandford, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, Mr. Blandford indicated that the chairman's time for at least the next two weeks will probably be filled with military matters. Once the series of hearings starting next week, Monday, 17 February, are completed, we may get back to Agency matters.

/S/
JOHN S. WARNER
Legislative Counsel

cc: Ex/Dir - Compt
DD/S
Mr. Chretien